Defendant.                         )

This matter came before the Court on July 3, 2025, for a preliminary hearing on the Complaint filed by the United States and a hearing on the United States' motion for detention. The defendant appeared in custody and was represented by Manny Atwal. The United States was represented by Assistant United States Attorneys Harry M. Jacobs, Daniel W. Bobier, Matthew D. Forbes, and Bradley M. Endicott.

After being advised of his constitutional rights and consulting with counsel, the defendant elected to waive his rights to both the preliminary and detention hearings. The Court engaged the defendant in a colloquy and found on the basis of his responses that the defendant's waivers were knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily made. Therefore, based on the entire record before the Court and the defendant's waiver, the Court finds that: (1) the Complaint is supported by probable cause; (2) the United States has established by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future proceedings; and (3) the United States has established by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of the community. Accordingly, the Court grants the United States' motion for detention.

For the foregoing reasons, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The motion of the United States for detention of the defendant is GRANTED;
2. The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
3. The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity to consult privately with counsel; and
4. Upon Order of the Court or request by the United States Attorney, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of appearance in connection with further court proceedings.
